To whom it may Concern,

My daughter was born at a time when Society was at fault, of hopeless, merciless scandal mongering, mischievous, an evil minded Society, ever on the watch to crush an unmarried mother, and by every means its pander to take her baby and give it to the married mothers who in society were barren. This was the doctors, ministers of religion, and the Social Welfare of Australia.

All these people did not consider what the natural mother who had been suffering; she had endured in striving to keep her head up high all through her pregnancy.

I was training to be a nurse and nursed until four hours before my daughter was born. It was decided by my mother and the obstetrician that they would take the child. I was not even told the sex of the baby and was discharged home.

This child was then further abused by Princess Margret Hospital and was taken to theatre for a major operation to skin graft her back where she was said to have been born with Gangrene on her back.

I have since asked a leading obstetriacian and paediatrician, who have both claimed that this is impossible,

I found my daughter at 33years of age, with many lies told by the Department of Social Services and have the correspondence to prove this, from both my daughter and myself.

So now the men in Society need to put this right, the wrong and give these thousands of mothers at least an a apology and some recompensation.

Surely a natural mother is the best person to raise her own child without the evil-minded people in Society judging her.

Yours Sincerely
