IMMIGRATION DETENTION NETWORK

Q267

Question:

Can you tell me which of those finding was not included in the draft report that was provided to the department in May?

In other words, was the draft report you received in May effectively the same as the report you received in October and, if there were any material differences, what were they?

Answer:

The findings in the draft report titled 'Assessment of the Current Immigration Detention Arrangements at Christmas Island' received by the department in May 2010 were effectively the same as those in the final report received by the department in October 2010.
